

1. Purpose of this policy

The Department of Planning, Industry and Environment (Department) wants children and young people who engage in its programs to have a safe and happy experience. This policy promotes the safety, welfare and well-being of children and puts measures in place to protect them from abuse.

The purpose of this policy is to:

- Assist employees and others in our workplaces to understand that their interactions with children must comply with the requirements of:
 - Child Protection \(Working with Children\) Act 2012
 - Children and Young Person's \(Care and Protection\) Act 1998
 - Children's Guardian Act 2019
 - The Department's Code of Ethics and Conduct.
- Enable the 10 child safe standards recommended by the Royal Commission Into Institutional Response to Child Sexual Abuse (2017) to be embedded in our practices, behaviours and workplace culture.

2. To whom this policy applies

- All Department employees - permanent, temporary, casual and senior executives.
- Other Government Sector employees who are on secondment or assigned to the Department.
- People engaged by the Department as volunteers or for work experience.
- People engaged under contract to provide services for the Department (contractors and consultants), when working in or visiting the Department's workplaces.

3. Policy statement

We will:

- maintain a rigorous and consistent recruitment, screening and selection process; ensuring that employees who work in child-related roles have been screened and found suitable for child-related work
- report conduct or any other issue that is inconsistent with maintaining a child safe environment
- have processes in place to ensure that allegations and/or risks can be reported easily, confidentially and without fear of retribution
- educate our workforce about child safety in the workplace and provide support, especially to people engaged in child-related work. This includes training on the nature and indicators of child maltreatment (particularly organisational child abuse), provision of information resources and direct support from their manager or supervisor
- provide a range of ways to allow children and their parents or other carers to provide feedback or raise concerns. We will listen to their views, respect what they say and involve them when we make decisions, especially about matters that will directly affect them.

- ensure that our child-related programs, standards and practices are inclusive and meet the needs of special diversity groups, including those who identify as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders, have a disability, or are from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- maintain physical and online environments that minimise the opportunity for child abuse to occur.

People who are in child-related work must obtain a Working With Children Check (WWCC), at their own expense. A valid WWCC number must be supplied to DPIE before any employment contract or volunteering arrangement can commence. If a valid WWCC number is not supplied by an individual, they must not commence work or volunteering, or continue to work if they are currently employed in any child-related role or activity.

This policy will be communicated to every person that it applies to and will be made accessible to everyone, including the public.

Any procedure or other attachment referenced forms part of the procedures under this policy and must be complied with to ensure correct and consistent application of the policy.

4. Responsibilities

Everyone in the workplace has a responsibility for maintaining an environment that is safe for children. The following table provides a high-level summary of key responsibilities:

5. Failure to comply with this policy

Behaviour that is contrary to this policy will be dealt with in a manner that is proportionate to the seriousness of the matter.

For employees, more serious breaches may be dealt with such as misconduct which may result in disciplinary action ranging from a caution up to, and including, termination of employment. The Government Sector Employment Act 2013 and Government Sector Employment Rules 2014 (and, in particular, Part 8) establishes the procedures for dealing with allegations of misconduct for Government Sector employees.

The Government Sector Employment Regulation 2014 requires an employee who is charged with, or is convicted of, a serious offence to immediately report that fact in writing to the agency head. Failure to do this may also result in disciplinary action.

Volunteers, people engaged in work experience or people who provide services under contract to the Department who do not comply with this policy may have their services or contract terminated immediately.

The Department has a legal obligation to report certain matters to the Office of The Children's Guardian (under the NSW Reportable Conduct Scheme) and law enforcement agencies. Breaches of this policy may also be subject to actions taken by law enforcement agencies, such as the NSW Police Force.
